WHO ARE BRAND BY DESIGN?

CoFounders:

Rosie Wilkins | Personal branding strategist & designer

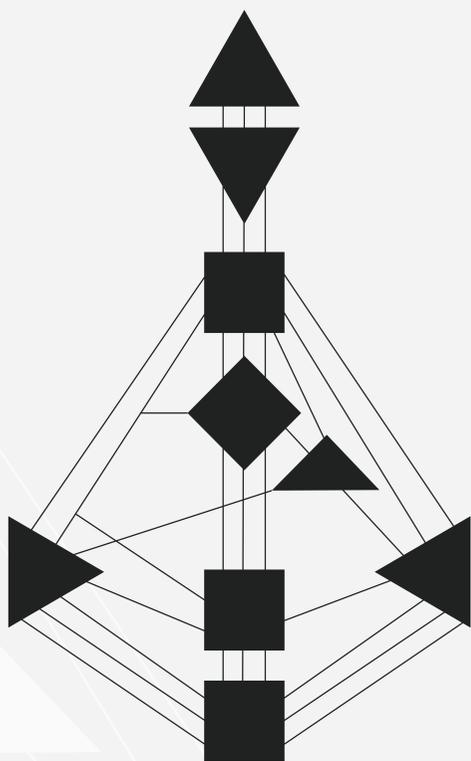

Nicola Dowley | Sales, business, & Human Design coach

Having worked side by side in a previous online business, then as client and strategist in their respective branding and coaching business', the pair have been integrating energetics and HD alongside branding and brand strategy successfully for the past 2 years. The formation of Brand by Design was a natural stepping stone to support more ambitious women create impact and legacy.

Iconic branding means considered branding. It means design with intention, design with strategy, design with style and most importantly design that is aligned to you, showcasing your personal flair within your business. Personal branding should create a visual representation of the person you are within.

Being seen and making waves is energetics. It is who we are behind the brand and our branding must look and feel aligned, so we can show up as our most fearless selves.

TRUE ALIGNMENT, WITH HUMAN DESIGN INFUSION

To create a brand that is a real reflection of you, we first need to understand who you are and Human Design is a huge part of that connection. HD is infused all the way through our branding and brand design process, looking not only at the visuals that we create but also your messaging, how you are showing up in your business, how you're building connections and how you are creating offers and serving your audience.

HELPING YOU BECOME MAGNETIC IN YOUR BRAND

When you step into a brand that feels aligned, you're also stepping into confidence and in turn magnetising those dream clients. Our clients enjoy brand identities that support them while they rise on both a personal and professional level.

What do our clients say?

WHO? Kirstie George | Kirstie George Fitness

WHAT DID WE DO? Extensive Brand Strategy | Visual Brand Development
Social Media Branding | Course & Membership Branding | Custom Sales Page Design

"I have worked with Rosie and Nic the last few months in Muse and also for further support with my re-brand. They helped me understand my Human Design and ultimately what drives me as a business owner and where to use my human design in business. I've definitely struggled previously with my emotions in business and this really helped

We built my brand, my logo, my graphics right from the start from a mood board. We built these around my values and my vision for my brand and my ideal client. The coaching sessions were invaluable to then allow the design part to take place. This all took place in a strategic structured way.

Everything I wanted my business and brand to look like was in my head I just didn't have the technical capability or skill to produce it to such an incredibly high standard. This is where Rosie and Nic came in.

Support with course launches, e mail data capture, landing pages. A full library of graphics for my brand, colour codes, fonts the list is endless. They produced and worked on it all. I am so proud of my new brand. Brand by Design captured exactly what I visualised And wanted my new brand to become. I now own a Luxury Fitness brand unique from the rest. I feel so excited for the future"
